

Privacy Act Statement

Prior to visiting The FBI Experience, The FBI will perform a security check using information such as a constituent's name, date of birth, and Social Security number. The FBI is authorized to collect and use this information in order to protect the security of its personnel, facilities, and information systems pursuant to one or more of the following provisions: Title 28, United States Code, Section 533; Title 40, United States Code, Section 1315; Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations, Sections 0.75(p) and 0.79; Title 41, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 102-81, and Department of Justice (DOJ) Order 2600.2D, Security Programs and Responsibilities (June 16, 2011). Constituent information is protected by the Privacy Act of 1974, Title 5, United States Code, Section 552a, as amended, and is maintained in the FBI's Security Access Control System (SACS), DOB/FBI-013, notice of which was published in the Federal Register at 70 Fed. Reg. 7516 (Feb. 14, 2005) and which may be viewed at <http://www.justice.gov/opcl/doj-systems-records#FBI>. Constituent information may be disclosed in accordance with the routine uses contained in that notice or as otherwise authorized by law.
